KING JAMES GOES TO STUD

S. C. HILDRETH'S FAMOUS STAKE WINNER IS SOLD FOR $15,000.

H. T. Oxnard Purchases Son of Plaudit and Un sightly for His Blue Ridge Breeding Farm-Horse Retires Winner of Over $100,000.

New, York, September 19.—Racing men learned today that King James, one of the stars of the S. C. Hildreth stable, has been purchased by H. T. Oxnard for his Blue Ridge Farm at Upperville, Va. The price is said to have been $15,000.

The price is said to have been $15,000.

King James won many important stakes during his career and was still in winning form when $5.00.

Hiddreth retired his stable last month. In fact he has an unbeaten record to mark his final year in training. King James contrived to win but one race when a two-year-old, but it was a good one.

He is a Himyar horse in his paternal and maternal lines of descent, fast and a great weight carrier and, withal, a stayer to which no route possessed any terrors. His solitary win when a two-year-old was in the valuable Tremont, in which he won $13,250 for his owner. As a three-year-old his only victory in a stake race was when he won the rich Annual Champion, his other three successes being in purses at Belmont Park, Saratoga and Santa Anita. But so industriously raced was he and of such bulldog courage and persistence was he that he was always poking his head in among the leaders, no matter how good they were, and to such purpose that he was second or third in such great races as the First Special, Century Stakes, Empire City Handicap, Travers Stakes, Lawrence Realization, Advance Stakes, Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes, Withers Stakes and Crotona Handicap, the result being that he won in second and third money alone more than many good race horses of the year amassed in any way.

In 1999 he was a champion, indeed, He won in more than many good race horses of the year amassed in any way.

In 1969 he was a champion, indeed, He won in sifecession the Burns Handicap, California Handicap, Speed Handicap, Metropolitan Handicap, Toronto Cup and Brooklyn Handicap. Long-distance racing was his specialty, but in illustration of his versatility he took up 142 pounds and won the Speed Handicap of three-quarters of a mile at Santa Anita in 1:11½. Besides those named he has numerous other stakes to his credit and his racing record in full is as follows:

ADVOCATES MORE LIBERAL POLICY.

John D. Crimmins of New York Tells Why He Favors the Gittins Bill.

New York, September 19.—George C. Reynard, secretary of the Farmers and Merchants' Mutual Assistance League, has received a large number of letters on the subject of the Gittins bill from prominent citizens, among them one from John D. Crimmins, a prominent New Yorker. Mr. Crimmins says in part:

"The Gittins bill, I am advised, is still pending in the legislature of this state. Horseracing in itself is not immoral. The question, then, is: Does horseracing increase gambling or the taste for gambling? This I question. The gambler will find means to gamble. Why, then, are those who do not gamble deprived of the pleasure of the race? We might begin further back, in the introduction of the racer, the breeding of the animal, the rivalry between the breeders for the most perfect and best blood, his training and development, and bringing him into the field. This is an employment which gentlemen farmers have followed in all countries where there is civilization.

which gentlemen farmers have followed in all countries where there is civilization.

"In our early days the presidents of the United States and many of the most prominent men and others who framed our constitution and laws were engaged in horseracing. We read enthusiastic descriptions in the letters that have come down from our presidents who have attended racing. I have in mind the letter of John Quincy Adams, describing the race between Eclipse and Henry. In that period and for many years afterward there was rivalry between the north and the south in the gentlemen's sport.

"In my judgment the people who have attended her races at our great tracks like Belmont Park, are the equals in their moral lives and their public works to the best in the land.

"The Gittins bill removes many of the features of racing that are objectionable to some persons. There is no reason why a man should be deprived of the sport he finds in attending a horserace, and there is no reason why the farmer should be prevented from breeding and developing the horse. "There is a community interest in this matter good.

'There is a community interest in this matter of racing, too. Take Saratoga Springs, for illustration. A prominent feature there for many years was racing. It attracted many thousands there who now go abroad and spend their millions in other countries. Why cannot a large percentage of these persons be kept in our country? We never can keep them here until we create attractive features.

"I have observed abroad that some of the persons who have been critics of horseracing in this country do not hesitate to attend horseracing in England and in France. I think there is a great leal of hypocrisy in the opposition to the Gittins in deal of hypocrisy in the opposition to the Gittins bill.

"Let us keep our people at home. We should be more liberal, not only in respect to racing, but in other things. I have read the Gittins bill carefully, and I think I know all that will be effected by its passage. In my judgment it should be enacted into law."

BUYS EIGHT YEARLINGS PRIVATELY.

Lexington, Ky., September 19.—William Oliver, the veteran trainer who campaigned among others the good racers Lord Badge and Warrenton, which finished second to Pink Coat in the American Derby of 1898, came here yesterday from Baltimore, closed an option taken last spring on six colts and two an option taken last spring on six colts and two fillies by McGee that were bred by Charles W. Moore at the Mere Hill Stad and returned trismorning to Pimlico. The yearlings were purchased by Mr. Oliver for J. S. Tyree, a prominent Washington chemist, and they will be shipped to Benning about November 1 to be handled by Mr. Oliver. The fillies are both chestnut in color. One is out of Radiance and the other out of Royal Una. The Virginia, at the instigation of Governor Mann, Radiance filly is considered by good judges the handsomest of her age and sex in Kentucky and she is to be entered for the Epsom Oaks. Mr. Moore got 82,000 for her. The colts are bays out of Sanfara, Rosemay, California and Fly Catcher, while the chestnuts are out of Sweet Charlotte and Lady Quex. "I do not care to say just what Mr. Tyree paid for the eight head," said Mr. Oliver this morning, "but he paid good prices for them all and I am satisfied that he got value in plenty for his money. If these do not turn out good race horses, then I shall miss my guess badly. They will be worth double the amount paid if the New York Legislature gives relief to the racing situation in the east by the passage of the Gittins bill, and I think it is quite certain that that measure will be adopted this fall," against the Jamestown Jockey Club for the revoca-tion of its charter, have been continued until the fourth Mondav in October. The continuance was granted yesterday by Judge B. D. White in the City Circuit Court and means that the fall meeting of the club, which opens November 2, will not be interfered with with.

When the case is called next month a date will be set for hearing it on its merits. It is highly probable that it will not be determined this year, and the fall meeting at the Jamestown track will be dever and forgotten before a decision is rendered. The mandamus proceedings were brought by the attorney-general on the grounds that bookmaking was permitted on the track during the spring meeting and, as a consequence, he holds that the charter of the association should be revoked. Even if the court sustains the contention of the state, it is almost certain that racing at the Jamestown track will continue. The name of the track probably will be changed and it will be operated by an individual instead of a corporation, which will not necessitate the obtaining of a charter from the state.

FIREMAN IS STAKE WINNER

GEORGE ODOM'S COLT BEATS CHERRYOLA IN PHOENIX HOTEL HANDICAP.

Kentucky Association Continues to Encounter Unsatisfactory Climatic Conditions-Patronage Shows Improvement in Spite of Drawbacks.

Lexington, Ky., September 19.—The Kentucky Association is certainly playing in hard luck in the matter of weather. It rained heavily again this afternoon. The downpour began shortly after 1 o'clock and continued half an hour just at the time when people would decide whether to go or not to go to the course. As a result of this rain the track was a veritable sea of mud and there is now no likelihood of a good course for either of the remaining four days of the meeting. There was, however, a better attendance than on any day save the opening, and the number present fell little short of that day's record. There was also marked improvement in the betting. The total amount handled in the machines was $31,293, which, besides being the largest amount for any day of the meeting, was $1,458 more than was handled in the mutuels and auctions combined on the fifth day last fall.

The feature race today was the Phoenix Hotel Handicap, at one and one-eighth miles, and it produced a surprise. There were only four starters—Fireman, Cherryola, Messenger Boy and Leamence. The public made Cherryola their choice and Fireman held second place in the betting with both of the others liberally supported. There was never any part of the race when Fireman did not hold the others safe. He went to the front on the club house turn and the further they went the more he increased his lead over Cherryola, finally winning with ridiculous ease by eight lengths, and the others beaten off.

The first run-up of the meeting came at the end of the fifth race, which was wow easily by F. R.

ning with ridiculous ease by eight lengths, and the others beaten off.

The first run-up of the meeting came at the end of the fifth race, which was won easily by F. R. Hitchcock's Kaiser, with Colonel Cook, a supposed good thing from the J. W. Frye stable, second, and Alooha third. It appears that before the race Col. R. T. Holloway had asked Mr. Hitchcock, who, in company with his brother Thomas and H. K. Knapp, had arrived overnight from New York, how he liked his horse. Mr. Hitchcock, it appears, made a response that gave Colonel Holloway the impression that he did not particularly favor the Kaiser's chances. After the race Mr. Hitchcock remarked to Colonel Holloway that he hoped he had not caused him a loss, since he had not meant to deceive him in what he had said. Kaiser was entered at $700, and without response to Mr. Hitchcock, Colonel Holloway stepped out and bid $1,200. Trainer W. H. Karrick raised it $5 and Colonel Holloway bid $1,400. Trainer Karrick quietly said $1,405, and Colonel Holloway stepped out and kaids, the horse being knocked down by Secretary Shelley to his owner. Messrs. Hitchcock and Knapp immediately left the track for the city.

Lackrose, the favorite for the opening race, scored an easy victory. Old Honesty kicked Long-Lackrose, the favorite for the opening race, scored an easy victory. Old Honesty kicked Longhand so severely on the leg just before the start that he lamed him, and the only logical contender was thus eliminated.

One of Denver Girl's bridle reins broke going down the backstretch and jockey Denny pulled her up. She did not finish, the boy dismounting and walking across the field, while the mare was led to her stable.

Wyandot was the betting choice of the second race, but Sir Blaise led all the way and won by eight lengths, with Polly D. a distant third. Lyne stepped in a hole on the backstretch and was pulled up. Union Jack repeated quite handliy in the third race, with Duquesne, a winner of yesterday, at long odds, taking second place. The closing race was a romp for Tom Bigbee, which showed sudden improvement.

Messrs. Louis Rives, assistant secretary of agriculture in Cuba; Emile DeLuacas, chief of the department of animal industry, and H. F. Laine, professor of animal husbandry in the University of Havana, are here as representatives of the Cuban government to make purchases of thoroughbred live stock, including horses, cattle and sheep, it being the purpose of the Cuban government to open six agricultural schools.

Track conditions were again bad for training operations this morning, but many trainers gave their charges stiff work. All the horses that worked were compelled to stay well in the center of the track on account of the "dogs" being up close to the inner rails. The following were among the best works of the morning:

NO CHANGE IN LAUREL SCHEDULE.

H. D. Brown, manager of the Maryland State Fair Association, whose new track at Laurel, Md., will open next month, wired Daily Racing Form from Laurel last night that there will be no deviation from the racing schedule previously announced for the new track. Mr. Brown's telegram was sent for the purpose of correcting an erroneous impression conveyed by other newspaper publications to the effect that the Laurel meeting would be confined to the few days of October preceding and following the Pimlico meeting, which is scheduled for October 7 to 23. Mr. Brown's telegram, which speaks for itself, is as follows:

"Will race positively at Laurel from October 2 to October 31, inclusive. The Jockey Club has seven days of the meeting, Racing will be conducted on the intervening days under the auspices of the State Fair and Horse Show. All contrary rumors are absolutely without foundation."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The condition of James R. Keene, who recently underwent an operation in England, is showing steady improvement, according to announcements hade by his physicians.

Joseph E. Davis, Richard Mortimer, Jr., H. W. Warner, C. F. Clark and other owners will ship their horses from the Long Island tracks to participate in the Interstate Fair races, next week, at Trenton, N. J.

McIvor is reported to have been working well at Douglas Park for trainer John Waiters, most of whose time is now taken up in handling a half dozen yearlings he has in training, and one or two of them look like the sort which develop into stake-winning two-year-olds.

The R. T. Wilson's horses that are now at Saratoga Springs in charge of foreman Patrick Dwyer will be shipped to Belmont Park about October 15. Two old horses are in the lot and the rest are yearlings. The dozen youngsters have been broken and worked over the Oklahoma course at Saratoga.

yearlings. The dozen youngsters have been broken and worked over the Oklahoma course at Saratoga. Despite the fact that the gates have not been thrown open at Belmont Park this year, the magnificent plant has lost none of its aitractiveness from a picturesque point. The lawns, privet hedges, trees, plants and roads are in singularly good condition. The main course has been treated by Superintendent William A. Gorman as in days agone. Light harrowing and the use of levelers have endered it fast and safe. Several horses have worked from the half mile post to the stand in better than 48 seconds recently.

The success of the running races as an attraction at the Kentucky State Fair, at Louisville, this year will result in the legislature being asked for an additional appropriation for this class of sport. Next year also the thoroughbred will not be overlooked in the premium class, and an attractive program of this sort will be on the card. It was only owing to one of the $500 purses for harness horses believe declared off that it was possible this season to have two running races each afternoon on four days. The appropriation for running races was miserly, being only $600.

TRAINING GALLOPS AT LOUISVILLE.

Muddy Tracks at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park Fail to Keep Trainers from Working Horses.

Louisville, Ky., September 19.—The Churchill Downs course today was slushy and heavy and so was Douglas Park. Still the trainers worked many racers. All hunted for firm footing in the center and on the outside of the courses. In such going the two-year-old, Pardner, which Lon Johnson bought from S. C. Hildreth, made an especially impressive showing. He worked a quarter in 25½, three-eighth in 28½, the half in 53, five-eights in 1:07½, and pulled up three-quarters in 1:25. Of the older horses, Sebago did the fastest work, going five-eighths in 1:07½. He went the first half in 53½. Other workouts follow:

The severe storm of Monday evening left its mark at the Downs. Two trees were uprooted on the south side of the plant and one fell over the stall occupied by Inclement, but the horse escaped injury.

Frank Taylor has moved H. C. Hallenbeck's mark at the Downs. Two trees were uproofed on the south side of the plant and one fell over the stall occupied by Inclement, but the horse escaped injury.

Frank Taylor has moved H. C. Hallenbeck's string of horses to the long barn on the south side of the Downs course. During the meeting, which opens next Monday, the Hallenbeck and Carman racers will be under the same roof.

Local autoists have petitioned the Chicago Motor Club. upon the occasion of its reliability run, to arrive in Louisville at noon, October 7, instead of late in the evening, as planned. It is desired to escort the Chicago motorists to the Downs in order that they may witness the running of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, at four miles. The autoists will number 200, and there will be between 40 and 50 machines.

J. C. Ferriss arrived today from Nashville. He has decided to race only Bettie Sue and Administer at the Downs meeting. Mr. Ferriss had ten horses taken up at Nashville, and at the close of the meeting here he will ship them, along with Bettie Sue and Administer, to Mexico City. He will race there for seventeen days and also at Juarez during the winter.

Lon Johnson had in mind the shipment of Carlon 6, to Lexington to run in the Phoenix Hotel Fall Handicap, but when he ascertained that the track conditions would be bad, he concluded not to send the horse. None of the Johnson horses will be raced until the season begins here.

It is the general impression that the Wainwright stable will cut quite a figure at the local meeting. Both High Private and Al Muller appear to be at their best. No two horses in their class have worked more impressively than they have in the last ten days. Al Muller especially improved.

A good-looking two-year-old that came to Churchill Downs from Canada with W. W. Darden's string a few days ago is Reciprocity. He moves like a youngster that is coming to hand slowly but three-year-old. He is a son of Monsieur Beaucaire and is of close kin to Mr. Darden will train him for that event if he keeps on developing as BELMONT STABLE MATERIAL FOR 1912.

New York, September 19.—At the private quarters of August Belmont, opposite the course of the Westchester Racing Association on the Hempstead Turapike, are stabled fourteen horses in charge of trainer Louis Feustel. In this collection are seven two-year-olds and upward. The others are year-lings that were shipped from the Nursery Stud in Lexington some six weeks ago. The older division is composed of Raymond, Practical, Culvert, Asticot, Scotch Bonnet, Racquette and White Heat. The lot has had strong galloping exercise and is quite forward. Raymond was a winner of two races in one afternoon at the Berkshire Hunt Club meeting a week ago. The son of Hastings has improved vastly of late, and is of a type that thrives in cool weather.

Culvert, a smart galloway, owned by Raymond Belmont, is in his best form, and it is doubtful if any horse in the galloway class—barring Booger Red—can beat him under normal conditions.

The probabilities are that, taken collectively, the seven yearlings—five colts and two fillies—which are destined to carry the maroon, cherry and black silks of the chairman of The Jockey Club are superior to any ever foaled at the famous Belmont establishment in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky. Besides being royally bred they are exceptionally fine individuals in every particular. Their striking individuality impresses the horseman, and that they will have to be reckoned with in the running of important races in this country or abroad is a foregone conclusion.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

W. C. D., Detroit, Mich. Yes. See reply to S. C. H. S., Chicago. The sum due, including your own money, was $10.15.

G. A. M., Lockport, N. Y. Certainly. There always is in mutuel betting.

A. G. R., Indianapolis, Ind. The difference was due tq an apprentice allowance having been waived.

Wally B., Salt Lake City, Utah. (1) Dick Welles and Savable were foaled in 1900. Salvable was foaled in 1893. Will look the other matter up. L. S., Chicago. The parlay lost because Donau did not run second. He was well backed for place, and it was this money that paid the twenty cents to a dollar place Princess Callaway and thirty-five cents to a dollar place Semprolus.

TERN'S TRICK REDUCES TRACK RECORD.

Spokane, Wash., September 19.—With an attendance that was up to the high-water mark, today's racing at Coeur d'Alene was all that could be desired. Favorites and second choices heid their own during the afternoon. Roy Selden made his appearance in the saddle for the first time since his nasty fall at Lagoon in the early summer. He had another narrow escape as Descendant stumbled and feil with him on the backstretch. Fortunately the little fellow escaped injury.

The five-furlongs' sprint feature was won by Turn's Trick in easy fashion from Pawhuska and Myles O'Connell. The American record holder went out in front at once and won by himself. In a drive that lasted a quarter of a mile, Pawhuska outstayed Miles O'Conneli. The track record for the distance was reduced by four-fifths of a second.

After an absence of one week—in Kentucky—during which time I completed arrangements for what I firmly believe to be the most promising information of my career. For at least one stable I will have the exclusive betting privilege. You know what that means.

$10 FOR THE WHOLE MEETING.

In view of all angles I am able to offer the whole of the Louisville meeting—one each day—including all specials, for the nominal sum of $10. Now, here is a chance to pick up some gilt-edged information Cheap. You should be able to treble your subscription on my opening day special, which I saw work ave furlongs in 1.03.

OFFER CANCELED SATURDAY.

On Saturday. September 23, I will return to Louisville to take charge of my office there. Therefore, on the latter date the above offer of $10 for the meeting will positively be canceled. I guarantee three specials during opening week. Avail yourself of this liberal offer.
